Dear Ms Uphill,

From the central student records in my charge I can provide the following information on Alfred Lynn Cooper:

He matriculated, that is formally enrolled in the University, on 21 October 1913, having been admitted to Clare College. He studied for the Ordinary BA, that is without honours, specialising in History. In the examinations for this 'Special' in 1914 he was placed in class 3. He did not graduate (source: UA Graduati 32/9). He was killed in action at Highwood 15th September 1916 (source: The War List of the University of Cambridge 1914-1918, Carey, G.V.).

For further biographical information you might like to contact the archivist of Clare College, Mr Robert Athol archives@clare.cam.ac.uk <<mailto:archives@clare.cam.ac.uk>>.

Yours sincerely,

C. Carney
