Born at Norwich in 1881, Captain G.A. Gaze was educated at Oundle School and St. John's College, Cambridge; he left the university for a clerkship in Queen Anne's Bounty Office in 1902. While at Cambridge he served in the University Rifle Corps, and in 1902 joined the London Regiment as a private. He was gazetted second lieutenant in 1912, Lieutenant in 1915, and captain in March, 1915. He went to the front in March, 1915, and served continuously without receiving a scratch. He was killed on September 15 when he was leading his company. Although hit twice he refused to leave his men, and was ultimately hit by a machine-gun bullet and killed instantaneously.
