We deeply regret to record the loss of Major George Edmund Vaughan, M.C., Coldstream Guards, killed in action on September 15. The younger son of the late Edmund Mallet Vaughan, D.L., of Lapley, Staffordshire, and the great-grandson of the 3rd Earl of Lisburne he was born on March 1, 1881, and was educated at Beaumont College, the Oratory School, and the R.M.C., Sandhurst. He entered the Coldstream Guards in 1901, and went out to South Africa in January, 1902. He returned to England at the end of the war, and eventually became adjutant of his battalion. In March, 1913, he was seconded from the Coldstream Guards, and accompanied Lord Willingdon, Governor of Bombay, to India, as his A.D.C. Returning to England in June, 1914, he went to France with the Coldstream Guards on the outbreak of war as a captain. He was wounded at the Battle of the Aisne, but returned to the Front again in October and went through the Battle of Ypres. He remained with his battalion until September, 1915, when he was invalided home with enteric. In July, 1915, he had been awarded the Military Cross. In January, 1916, he was promoted major, and returned to the Front in April, serving with the Coldstream Guards until September 15, when he was killed.

Will from The Tablet (International Catholic News Weekly), 16 Dec 1916

MAJOR GEORGE EDMUND VAUGHAN.

Major George Edmund Vaughan, M.C., Coldstream Guards, of Lapley, Penkridge, Staffs, and of 21, Wilton Crescent, S.W., who was killed in France on September 15, has left estate of the value of £35,088.
